

Regan Swallow Design Ltd.

While an economical footprint this cottage manages to boast large interior room sizes. Virtually two great rooms, one up and one down, ensure any foreseeable activities are accommodated.

The laundry facilities are located in the unfinished basement which also provides more than ample recreational storage space. The entire second level is dedicated to the Master Suite and all its amenities including a covered private balcony.

High ceilings, plant ledges and plenty of window locations make this a truly luxurious indulging retreat.