

Regan Swallow Design Ltd.

A deep covered railed verandah protects the entrance as well as providing curb appeal for this country home. A private office or guest room is easily accessed from the foyer.

The dining room is open to the kitchen and is surrounded with natural light. The master suite boasts a dressing area, master bathroom and a private balcony. Two additional large bedrooms share the main bathroom.

Plans come with a rear partial walkout basement foundation plan.