

Regan Swallow Design Ltd.

The spacious workshop with two window locations is open to the garage which easily accommodates everyone from the hobby enthusiast up to the weekend mechanic.

The second level unfinished storage loft is presently a blank canvass awaiting your personalized transformation into a quaint home office, guest room or exercise room retreat enhanced with a large view dormer and generous window openings at either end.

Plans are designed with a slab foundation plan.